DEATHS

Killed by a Piano

George Williams, col. who went to Kansas City from here five years ago, was killed there Wednesday, Sept. 21st by a piano falling on him and crushing his skull. He was assisting in moving the piano. He died on the way to the hospital. His remains were sent to Marshall and laid to rest in Fairview cemetery last Sunday afternoon. He was a son of Mrs. Lane, 32 years old, and single, and a member of the local carriage union which took charge of the remains and buried him.

Circuit Court

Circuit court was still in session yesterday afternoon having under consideration the flood case of Fred Stockman vs. VanStone heirs from Malta Bend.

The Garnett tract of land of 8 acres, 3 miles northeast of Malta Bend was sold to Frank D. Stockman at $121 an acre under a partition sale.

In the case of Marshall Acetylene Light Co. vs. R. S. McMahan of Blackwater for $170, payment for an acetylene light system, was decided in favor of the light company.

Mrs. Lula M. Abar, of Springfield, Ill., was given a verdict of $10,000 against the C. B. & Q. R. R. for damages in the death of her husband, who was a brakeman and fell through a viaduct at Brookfield. Motion for new trial filed.

J. W. Taylor vs. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Welsh, account. Judgment against Mrs. Welsh for $303.42, included interest.

Fred Rubelman vs. Fred Tuepker et al, suit on contract. Decided in favor of defendants.

Old Time Yarns

Marshall people this week had the pleasure of listening to many yarns of "befo' de war." We received a pleasant call yesterday from Capt. James W. Allen, of St. Louis, who was an officer in the Southern army. His father moved a press here from Boonville in 1855 and began the publication of the Saline County Herald. In 1877 Capt. Allen succeeded his father in the business and conducted the paper till the war came on, when he closed the office and went to war with his compositors. During the war he was shot at Boonville through the right breast and also through his neck and left for dead but he rallied and grew strong again. He then bought a printing outfit and intended to start a paper in St. Louis, but for fear of it being captured took the outfit to the country and buried it. That was the last he saw of it for years, as it had been found and removed.

One day he passed Mr. Maynard's office and some of the type faces and pictures looked familiar so he went in and found his outfit doing good service printing a Republican paper! He went back to St. Louis and has held many positions of prominence there since. We almost induced him to subscribe for a Republican paper.

Confederates Recapture Marshall

Confederate Veterans Hold Annual Reunion Here.

Marshall was never more in the hands of the Confederates than she was Tuesday and Wednesday this week. About 350 veterans of the South with their wives and children and friends thronged our city during the two days. The crowd was one of the largest here this summer and most of our citizens being loyal sympathizers with the southern cause made it an occasion long to be remembered, by providing music, refreshments, entertainment and decorations.

The program was ushered in Tuesday morning by stirring music by the Concordia band, one of the best in this part of the state, and who remained here during the entire two days. One of the band boys remarked he wished he could stay longer! Oh, the winning smile of some of our young ladies.

At 10 a. m. Tuesday a program was carried out at the opera house. At 1.30 and 7.30 p. m. there were also sessions at which music and recitations served to enliven the program.

Wednesday the public school were dismissed and at 9 a. m. the school children joined in the big parade around the square. They made a splendid sight, especially the convent girls, who were all dressed in black and each carrying a United States flag.

A number of receptions and a dance at night closed the reunion which was one of the most successful held. We learned of no unpleasant remarks or feelings being hurt by anyone, so it wasn't at all objectionable to be "in the hands of the enemy" and hope they may be permitted to enjoy many more pleasant gatherings.

Our citizens provided a rest and refreshment room for the veterans in the vacant store room on the west side of the square. Also headquarters in the store room vacated by W. H. Fletcher, both places being profusely decorated with bunting, pictures, flowers, flags, etc.

Stock Market.

National Stock Yards, Ill., Sept. 28 Receipts of cattle this week have been extremely heavy at all points and all the buyers, both packers and order buyers have taken advantage of the heavy runs and all classes of steers are showing a decline of 40 to 60 cents from a week ago today and are trading very slow even at the decline. They do not seem to be very anxious for them as everyone got a good many cattle the first part of the week. Stockers and feeders have also declined in sympathy with the fat cattle. The demand continues good for all kinds of she stuff with exception of the good heavy cows which are selling very slow and fully 35 to 40 lower than the best time last week. Heifers are not more than 10 to 15 lower. Common and medium cows, full steady. Bulls strong. We should have a light run of cattle next week in order to give the dressed beef channels a chance to clean up. With a heavy run of cattle next week, would cause a very bad effect.

The hog market continues to decline even with light receipts. The top sales to-day on some fancy sorted light weights $9.35. Choice heavies, weighing 220-240 lbs. for $9.10. Prime heavies 250 and above, top $8.30. Roughs and common throw outs from $8.00 to $8.25. We can not offer any encouragement on these hogs.

The sheep market is steady with the close of last week.

Yours truly,
DRAGGON, BECKER & CO.

Public Speaking

Hon. A. C. Rankin, of Chicago, Ill., one of the most distinguished and eloquent campaign speakers of the Republican party will address the people of Marshall on the issues of the day at the court house, Friday night, Sept. 30, 1910 at 7.30. Everybody invited.

Bad Accident

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Black's 14-months-old son, was badly burned Saturday evening by pulling a dish of hot gravy upon himself. He is not seriously hurt. They live at 357 South Benton.

Wreck on Missouri Pacific

At a late hour Monday night the Missouri Pacific blockade caused by a train wreck early this morning at Hermann, Mo. in which one man was killed and eight injured, had not been lifted. Several trains of people were stalled either side of the wreck, and there was slight prospect of resuming through traffic last night. Two trains of St. Louis people, including a delegation of Confederate veterans en route to a convention at Marshall, were among those stalled.

Passenger trains Nos. 4, 10 and 8, east bound, were merged into a combination and scheduled to arrive in St. Louis at 8 o'clock last night. They did not get through up to midnight. The wreck has resulted in the worst tie-up in years on the Missouri Pacific.

The collision was between the east bound passenger, No. 10, known as the St. Louis limited, and a west-bound freight train. The man who was killed and five of the injured men live in St. Louis. The impact between the two engines tore up the track and knocked down telegraph poles, destroying telegraphic communication. Officials of the Missouri Pacific believe Massey, the engineer of the freight train, was responsible for the wreck.

They say he received orders to take a siding near Hermann, and let the passenger train by. He pulled on a siding, they say, but as the passenger approached he pulled out on the main track again. The passenger train passed Hermann at 5.53 a. m., arriving in St. Louis at 8.12 a. m.

The engineers of both trains and the fireman of No. 10 saved their lives by leaping from their engines sustaining painful bruises and cuts. S. B. Evans, fireman on the freight was caught in the cab and crushed to death.

No. 10 was behind time and running forty-five miles an hour when the impact came, and probably only the fact the passenger carried three empty mail coaches all three of which were wrecked and thrown down a 15-foot embankment, prevented a great loss of life.

The locomotives were telescoped up to the cylinders and almost completely demolished.

The freight train had taken siding at Herman to let No. 10 pass. No. 32, also a passenger train, however, had preceded No. 10, and the engineer of the freight it is said mistaking No. 32 for No. 10, pulled out.

Three Steers Killed

Sherman Clift and son, Harry, were down from Malta Bend yesterday on business. The latter informed us that Andy Plattner of east of Malta Bend had three valuable steers killed by lightning Sunday night. They were worth $300.

Shot a Wolf

Andy Hayob Monday evening shot a wolf on the J. B. Miller place, five miles west of town. He was out squirrel hunting and ran across Mr. Wolf and decided to go after bigger game, to the wolf's sorrow. It was a good sized one and we had the pleasure of viewing the hide which Mr. Hayob brought around.

Harrison-Heinzler

Frank T. Harrison, who conducts a confectionery store in Slater and Miss Eulalia Heinzler, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Heinzler, of Gilliam were married at 8 a. m. Wednesday morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Slater, Father T. J. Fortune officiating. After a short trip to Kansas City they will be at home to their friends in Slater. We join in extending congratulations.

Among the Sick

Miss Ethel Fulkerson, of near Sweet Springs, who has spent the past week at Mrs. Wm. Mitchell's on South Redman, had an operation performed on her by Dr. A. C. Putnam, assisted by Drs. G. C. Emerson and J. T. Phelan, and she returned to her home Tuesday morning feeling better than at any time in four years.

Mrs. Ella Lacy has returned from Kansas City, where she left her son, Sam, in a hospital for an operation.

Mrs. O. S. Russell who is in the Baptist Sanitarium, in St. Louis, where she was operated on for appendicitis is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ludwig of east of town were shopping in town Tuesday. It was the first time Mrs. Ludwig was out after a serious illness of typhoid fever lasting eight weeks.

Church News

The Sadie Buckland Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church spent a delightful evening at their semi-annual box opening social in the Sunday School rooms on Friday evening.

Rev. A. A. Faris and family moved into the M. E. parsonage which has been repaired this week. Mr. Faris will occupy the M. E. pulpit Sunday morning.

Mrs. E. F. Biddle has succeeded Mrs. J. E. McDonald as organist at the M. E. Church.

The ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church will serve dinner on show day, next Monday, in Jacob VanDyke's vacant store room on the west side of the square.

Mesdames Ed and Steve Keeshart gave a big dinner Sunday at the former's home in honor of a coming event, but we are not at liberty to announce it yet.

$4,000 Four Thousand Dollars

The above amount is a very conservative estimate of the stock of Chinaware, Queensware, Glassware, etc., now being sold out. Not going to carry these lines again after selling the goods now offered. Positively going out of these lines. All dinner ware at a discount. All cut glass at cost. All fancy china plates, vases, salad bowls, etc., at 1-3 off. All jardineres at cost. Come early.

Shoe Factory Contract Let

The directors of the Monnig shoe factory, Marshall's new enterprise met at the Farmers Savings Bank last Thursday evening and organized by electing the following officers: Hugo Monnig, president; Jacob VanDyke, vice-president; W. C. Gordon, secretary and treasurer. Bids for the construction of the new factory building were received as follows:

Norman Chaffee, $21,500.
Ed Page, $20,400.
Al Darling, $18,200.
U. G. Hoffman, $15,500.

The contract was let to Mr. Darling. It calls for the building to be completed by Dec. 24th and the company expects to start up here by Jan. 1st. The work for labor and material is to be contracted for in Marshall as nearly as possible. The factory will be located on the Potter home site on North Benton, near the railroad tracks.

State C. E. Convention at Sedalia.

The Missouri Christian Endeavor convention which meets in Sedalia October 27-30 bids fair to be the biggest and best convention that has ever been held in this state. Christian Endeavor has been increasing this year at the rate of eight new societies every twenty-four hours. There have been added over 500,000 new members.

The Sedalia convention will have a very strong program. This will be in keeping with the watchword of the convention, which is "The Helpful Convention."

Rev. Francis E. Clark, founder of the movement, will be in this convention, as well as Mr. Karl Lehmann, interstate field secretary; Rev. C. H. Hubbell, president and field secretary of the Michigan Christian Endeavor; Rev. H. H. Gregg, D. D. of St. Louis; Rev. C. B. Miller, First Baptist church Kansas City; Rev. R. P. Sheppard, St. Louis; Rev. H. C. Rogers, Kansas City; Rev. A. H. Armstrong, St. Louis; Bishop C. H. Weakly, Kansas City, and all of the various state and district officers of the state.

You cannot question the strength of such a program. The music will be led by Mr. Wm. S. Dixon, of Sedalia, assisted by a chorus. This will be another inspiring feature. Two mission study classes will be held during the convention and moving pictures will be shown in each of the actual scenes in the fields.

The local arrangements committee, of which Mr. Charles A. Dixon is chairman, has made careful preparation of all the details and has tried to send out information to all who are interested in the work. A large poster has been sent to each society in the state as an advertisement of this great meeting. Provisional programs have also been distributed. The railroads have granted a special rate of four cents for the round trip.

A Narrow Escape

Miss Sadie, Henry and Albert Hogge had a narrow escape last Friday. They came to town in a big wagon and Miss Sadie and Henry were going on the Alice to Boonville and from there to Columbia where Henry would enter college. But as they drove down the street one of their horses, being of a reckless disposition, became frightened at Dr. McGuire's new auto and started to run off when one line broke leaving the driver without any show. They ran on down towards the spring and were pulled into the fence with the one line and all three of the occupants were thrown out and Miss Sadie was run over by two wheels of the wagon, but she was not badly hurt, probably from the fact that the wagon was turned on a lock and there was but little weight on those two wheels. Albert received a kick and was badly bruised but being so close to the horse was not seriously injured. Henry came out unhurt. One of the horses, the gentle one, ran into the bridge and was badly injured by caving its skull in just below its eyes. They were fortunate to escape as well as they did. Miss Sadie and Henry went on their journey as if nothing had happened.—Arrow Rock Statesman.
